Agreement for Permission to Photograph Library Collections

This agreement applies to the use of personal cameras. Researchers wishing to use a personal scanner must consult with the Librarian to confirm that scanning is approved for the library material before proceeding.

No fees apply for researchers using their personal cameras. Photographs are to be taken by the researcher without use of a flash or additional lights. Researchers must consult with the Librarian before using stands or other special equipment for photography. The photography of materials must be in accordance with all Library reading room policies regarding the handling of library materials.

Permission is hereby requested to reproduce material from the library collections of the Schenectady County Historical Society in place of standard photocopying for personal research, reference, and lecture uses only. No rights to reproduce, publish (including online publishing/posting), or publicly display images of the library materials listed above, in whole or in part, are granted by this form. Any additional rights are not authorized without specific, written permission of the Schenectady County Historical Society, through the Librarian. Contact the Librarian and request the Agreement for Permission to Publish to request permission for public display or publishing.

Please print and sign your name below to indicate that you accept the above terms.
