Policies

We encourage you to help us preserve our buildings and collections for future generations. Guests seen acting inappropriately or in any way endangering our collections, including our buildings, animals, boats, cemetery, gardens, or artifacts, will be asked to leave the site immediately. Failure to uphold these policies may result in cancellation of the rental event.

Payment

A deposit of $1,000 is required to be due at booking. This deposit is non-refundable in the event of cancellation. Final payment, along with the final headcount, is due no less than thirty (30) days prior to your rental. Payment must be submitted to the Schenectady County Historical Society via check or credit card. At that time, the SCHS staff must also be notified of the following items:

- Copy of liability insurance
- Copy of temporary beer/wine/cider permit or caterer’s liquor license, if applicable
- Final headcount
- Setup arrival time
- Setup departure time
- Day of arrival time
- Ceremony start time
- Reception end time
- Day of departure time
- Additional cleaning hours ($25/hour)
- The names, contact, and arrival times of any on-site vendors you will be using, including caterers, florists, musicians, rental companies, and photographers.

Staffing

There will be at least one Schenectady County Historical Society staff member on site at all times during your rental. However, Schenectady County Historical Society does not provide any wedding planning services, nor any day-of-event coordination. Our staff’s role is limited to unlocking the barn for access and to supervise the event to prevent damage to our property and collections and to monitor that the agreed upon policies are honored. SCHS staff is not responsible for assisting with wedding logistics, setup or teardown by the renter.

Cleaning & Cleaning Deposit

Prior to your departure, the barn must be returned to the state it was in upon your arrival. This includes, but is not limited to: removing all belongings and decorations; placing contents of all trash and recyclable bins into dumpster; clearing grounds of decorations and debris; and sweeping barn free of debris. A cleaning deposit of $250 will be added to the full amount of any Nilsen Barn rental. If you must return the following day to complete your cleanup, a $25/hour fee will be assessed. Notice of these additional hours must be given thirty (30) days in advance of your rental date. Following your departure from the site, our staff will verify that you have removed your property and left the barn as you found it. If this is the case, the $250 deposit will be refunded to you.

Access

Booking an event on site does not permit exclusive access to the grounds and buildings, nor will it preclude normal museum operations. No access is allowed to the structures other than those specified as part of the contract, including the historic structures or the Franchere Education Center. Access is prohibited to the pathways, flat, dock, and bateaux along the river below the main property. Guests are not permitted in the second story of the barn, or in the stall containing the sleigh. Rental of the Nilsen Dutch Barn does include access to the bathrooms located in the Red English Barn.

Artifacts

The Dutch Barn is the storage location for a number of Schenectady County Historical Society artifacts. While most are located on the second floor, some are found on the first floor, including, but not limited to a loom, a sleigh, and broom-making equipment. These artifacts will remain in place during all rental events, and must remain free from harm throughout the event. This includes placing items on top of or over them, moving them, or damaging them in any way.
